THE LIFE OF CRICKET
LAST EDITION.
SHEEHAN CAME DOWN

He Tried to Shove the Sheffield Mayor Bill Aside.
But Saxton and a Vote of the Senate Were Against Him.

Republican Leader Gets the Bill Into Committee of the Whole.

(By Associated Press.)
ALBANY, April 20.—When the Sheffield bill giving power to the coming Mayor of New York to remove and appoint the heads of departments, was handed down from the Lieutenant-Governor's desk to-day, Senator Saxton said that every one had made up his mind on the bill and knew how he would vote on it. There was no need of having the bill go to a committee and he therefore moved that it go to the Committee of the whole at once.
Senator Cortland objected. Said he: "If there is any bill before the Legislature to which should be applied every possible rule, it is this one. It proposes to give more extraordinary powers to the Mayor of New York than are enjoyed by the President of the United States. It makes all the heads of departments in New York subject to the whims and political caprices of a Mayor. The bill has been forced through by caucus action, and I object to its advancement out of order."
A long and bitter discussion on parliamentary questions followed, and Lieut-Gov. Sheehan sustained the objection. Senator Saxton appealed from the decision of the Chair, and the appeal was carried. The Lieutenant-Governor immediately referred the bill to the Cities Committee.
Senator Saxton said there was certainly no reason why this bill should not go at once to the Committee of the Whole.
The Lieutenant-Governor said that the bill had already been referred to the Cities Committee.
"Then it was done in a surreptitious manner," said Saxton. "I understand the little trick, and I move to discharge the Cities Committee from further consideration of the bill."
"I resent your charges, which are untrue and uncalled for," said Lieut-Gov. Sheehan. "Your great motion is clearly out of order in the present order of business, but I will entertain the first motion to refer the bill to the Committee of the Whole."
Senator Saxton, in voting to overrule the Lieutenant-Governor's decision, said: "I believe the bill should be allowed to come before the Senate, but I shall vote against it on final passage."
The bill, by a party vote, was taken into Committee of the Whole.

RAPID TRANSIT BILLS.

Made a Senate Order for Tuesday—Dock Department Bill Reported.

(By Associated Press.)
STATE CAPITAL, April 20.—There was an unusually large attendance of State Senators at the session this morning for Friday owing to the announcement of Senator Saxton, made yesterday, that a large calendar of bills on third reading would be acted upon. The Senate and Chamber of Commerce Rapid Transit bill, reported from the Railroad Committee, made a special order for Tuesday morning next.
Both bills were amended in the Chamber of Commerce bill the names of the Commissioners are stricken out and the clause calling for a referendum vote inserted. FOR NEW YORK QUARANTINE.

State Senate Votes Money to Enlarge Hoffman Island.

(By Associated Press.)
ALBANY, April 20.—Senator Mullen this morning introduced a bill appropriating $50,000, of which $50,000 is to be at once available, and the remainder next April, for the enlargement of Hoffman Island, in New York harbor, for quarantine purposes.
The island, he said, was so small that in case of fire there would be no refuge from the flames except in boats. The buildings were in bad condition, and were regular fire-traps.
It was the purpose to make Hoffman's Island the main quarantine station for New York, and to abandon the Fire Island, which was purchased during an emergency, and which was unfitted for the purpose. The bill passed at once.

Last night Hermann Hellstrom, the Norwegian reporter from Chicago, who identified the photographs of the dead man as the portraits of Ludwig Brandt, his former co-worker on a Norwegian newspaper, was arrested by Policeman Walsh. Hellstrom has been living at 244 Sixth avenue in this city. He was arrested in West Twenty-third street, and lodged in the West Thirtieth street station.
